Great Lakes Chapter

Join us in Grand Rapids, Michigan, which was once known as the epicenter the furniture industry and has now become known for Beer City USA, for the AWI Advanced Estimating workshop Thursday, October 19 through Friday, October 20th. Learn advanced techniques for estimating complex projects, fine-tune your analyses of job costing and justify the added value your company can offer for your proposed price to beat the competition. This workshop will help you devise an effective process for determining your costs while marking up the costs to meet your overhead and make a profit. Start the trip off with a plant tour on Wednesday at Handorn Inc. followed by a welcome reception at the hotel. Take advantage of your time away with a planned tour through some of the city's most prominent breweries experiencing first-hand how the city reached Beer City USA status. Extend your stay into the weekend and head to the lakeshore for a fall color tour. Make the most out of your time away-If you're going to spend a few days away from the shop learning new industry skills, why not do it in a place where you can have some fun too?
